Hartwell First United Methodist Church to host 10th Annual Old Time Singing

The 10th Annual Old Time Singing sponsored by the Hart County Historical Society will be hosted this year by the Hartwell First United Methodist Church. It is held annually on the Sunday following the Pre-Fourth Extravaganza and will fall this year on June 28th. The event provides singing and wonderful refreshments provided by the hosting church. Joel Moore will chair the event. The first Old Time Singing was held in 2006 at the New Harmony United Methodist Church which was facing demolition. It was such a huge success that it has been held every year since in an effort to help our citizens become aware of the history of our local churches.

Louise Ayers wins Turkey Call

Catherine Harrison presents a handcrafted Georgia Red Cedar Turkey Call to raffle winner, Louise Ayers.

During the Hart County Historical Society's 2014 annual meeting in October, a drawing was held for an original Turkey Call handcrafted from local Georgia Red Cedar by local artist, Larry Richardson and donated by Gaines Snow. Louise Ayers won the raffle.

Historical publications are for sale at the museum

The Historical Society has for sale at the museum the following publications:

- The History of Hart County by Baker
- Vignettes of Hart I & II by Sam Hilliard
- A Century of Rural Education by Hilliard / Brown
- A Calling of Churches by Hilliard / Kelley / Moore

These make great gifts and can be purchased at the museum during the Chamber's business hours. Supplies of these incredible publications are limited so don't wait. All proceeds provide support for the operation of the museum. Please call (706) 376- 8590 or (706) 376- 6330 for more information.
